Dear Mr. Macrae:

Referring to our telephone conversation and your letter of April 25, 1958, I have had a talk with Bob Murphy and sent him for inspection the copy of the volume on Stalin's Correspondence with Roosevelt, Churchill, Attlee and Truman. I enclose a copy of the memorandum which I have received from Mr. Murphy, which is self explanatory.

Please let me know whether you wish me to return the volume which you sent me.

Sincerely yours,

Signed

Allen W. Dulles

Memo for the record: Mr. Murphy's secretary, in response to a query from this office, said Mr. Murphy asked her to tell us that "it is quite all right if Mr. Dulles wants to send a copy of Mr. Murphy's memorandum to Mr. Macrae."

DEPUTY UNDER SECRETARY OF STATE
WASHINGTON

MEMORANDUM FOR: The Honorable
Allen W. Dulles,
Central Intelligence Agency.

Allen:

Referring to our telephone conversation yesterday and the letter from Mr. Macrae of E. P. Dutton & Company of April 25 regarding their plan to publish "STALIN'S CORRESPONDENCE WITH CHURCHILL, ATTLEE, ROOSEVELT & TRUMAN, 1941-45", our Historical Division tells me that the English translation of Stalin's correspondence is already available as a result of publication in Moscow. The Division states that many of the documents have been published by this Government, that is, the correspondence with Roosevelt and Truman. Some documents have not been published because we have not yet put out the Potsdam papers. Our people see no problem regarding the publication of the volume in question, but of course we take no responsibility for the accuracy of the text which has not been verified by us.

Robert Murphy

Dear Mr. Dulles:

Confirming our telephone conversation, I am sending you a volume of STALIN'S CORRESPONDENCE WITH CHURCHILL, ATTLEE, ROOSEVELT & TRUMAN.
It is the English translation of the original Russian version.

I would like to be advised whether or not our publication of this book in the United States would in any way be harmful to the best interests of the United States, - in other words, have the editors omitted certain documents or so phrased the translation that it puts a wrong slant on the over-all situation. If you could look at this yourself and also show it to Robert Murphy I would be much obliged.

With cordial greetings,

Sincerely,

Elliott B. Macrae
